Your 2025 BMO Nesbitt Burns Tax Information

At BMO Nesbitt Burns, we know that tax season is an important time of year for our clients. Depending on your investment holdings and account type(s), you may receive a variety of income tax slips from BMO. This tax package includes a letter summarizing the tax slips you can expect to receive. If applicable to your situation, it also includes a Foreign Security Report and Fee Letter.

For your awareness, we're also providing a summary of the new tax reports that are available on BMO Nesbitt Burns Gateway for the 2025 and subsequent tax years.

Please make sure that you receive all required tax slips before filing your tax return with the Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA"), and Revenue Québec for Quebec residents, to prevent having to file an amendment.

New annual tax reports available on BMO Nesbitt Burns Gateway

BMO Nesbitt Burns has created new annual tax reports - in an "Excel-like" format - that will be available exclusively on BMO Nesbitt Burns Gateway in March and April 2026 to assist you and/or your tax professional in preparing your tax filings.

Executive Summary

Summarizes all taxable transactions, fees and charges - by account - that were incurred during the 2025 tax year.

Transaction Report

Includes details of all transactions that are summarized in the Executive Summary and reported on your annual tax slips. This report is available in a format that easily allows you to export data and import it into other programs.

Gateway availability for the Executive Summary and Transaction Report based on account type

Registered: Mid-March 2026
Non-Registered: Early April 2026
Entities with a Calendar Year-End: Early April 2026

Amendments

Please note that the Executive Summary and Transaction Report will not include changes to the amounts or income classifications when securities on your original tax slips are amended. Any amendments to the original tax slips for any tax stream (e.g., T3/RL-16, T5/RL-3 or T5013/RL-15) will be sent to you as per your document delivery preferences (i.e., mail or online).

If you're not already registered to receive your tax slips - and other documents - exclusively online through the eDocuments function in Gateway, please speak with your BMO Nesbitt Burns Investment Advisor. eDocuments provides fast and secure access to your documents.

Summary of 2025 Tax Slip(s) you will receive

You are receiving this letter to provide you with a summary of the tax slip(s) you will receive for the above-noted account(s), based on the securities held in your account(s) during 2025 that made taxable distributions. This summary includes the tax slips you will receive, the underlying securities, where applicable, as well as their scheduled mailing dates. This will make it easier to confirm that you have received all of your tax slips before filing your 2025 tax return.

Highest daily closing market value during 2025: (October 07, 2025) $705,872.35

Some accounts that exceed a certain monetary threshold(s) have CRA Trust Reporting obligations. Typically, these accounts are Bare Trusts or In Trust For accounts. For more information, visit below website and/or please consult your tax advisor.

HOME - Canada.ca > Taxes > Income Tax > Trust Income Tax

Please ensure that you have received all your tax slips before filing your tax return, to avoid having to file an amendment with the Canada Revenue Agency and Revenu Québec (if you are a Quebec resident).
